

Anna Noferini

Anna Noferini, violinist and violist, belongs to a musicians family, her mother Maria Grazia is a pianist and her father Giordano was a composer, a conductor and the director of Bologna's music School.

She got the 1st Prize with distinction in violin at Bruxelles's music School in 1986 as a student of the famous M° A. Grumiaux, she also graduated in violin at Milano's music School in 1990 and she graduated summa cum laude in Viola in 2010 at Firenze's music School.

She has continued to study with M° C. Romano, S. Gheorghiu, V. Pikaizen, N. Brainin, B. Giuranna, D. De Rosa, M. Jones and A. Vismara.

She won prizes in competitions and she got grant.

She recorded some cd, and made recordings for radios and televisions.

From 1991 she is playing as a first violin in Maggio musicale Fiorentino's Orchestra with M° Z. Mehta as principal conductor.

She plays frequently chamber music, especially Duo with piano and Strings Trio like violist with her two brothers Andrea and Roberto.

She also plays early music in different groups.